POETRY:

A RAPID ON THE UPPER OTTAW.

Over the snows
Buoyantly goes
The lumberers hark canob.
Lightly they sweep.
Wilder they leap.
Rending the white caps through.
Away! away!
With the speed of a startled deer.
While the steersman true.
And his laughing crew.
Sing of their wild career:

"Mariners glide
Far o'er the tide,
in chips that are stanch and streng;
Safely as they
Speed we away
Waking the woods with song."
Awayi away!
With the speed of a startled deer.
While the laughing crew
Of the swift cance
Sing of the raftmen's cheer.

Over the snows
Buoyantly goes
The lumberer's bark canoe;
Lightly they sweep,
Whider they leap
Tearing the white caps through
Away's away'
With the speed of a startled deer;
There's a fearless crew
In each light canoe,
To sing of the raftmen's cheer.

THRIPT. No beauty beauty overthrows, But every joy its season knows, And all enchanted hours prepare Enchantment for tomorrow's wear.

Grieve not the parting day, for seen. The nightingales will sing the moon Climbing the track that now the sun Leaves when the songs of day are done.

And grieve not when her beauty fails, And silence keeps the nightingales, For that eclipse again will hring. The sun with all his birds to sing.

New York, April 14.—Basing their calculations largely on the more encouraging aspects of the railroad strike, pools continued to press the advantage in the stock market today, many issues making substantial accessions to recent gains.

The market derived some of its increased momentum, however, from outside of public participation, commission houses with counections at interior centers reporting a pronounced revival of interest at mid-western points.

Stock dividends, actual and prospective, as represented by American Tobacco, Woolworth and Union Bag and Paper, helped to sustain the advance, particularly among specialities, in which gains extended from 3 to almost 15 points.

In several noteworthy instances higest quotations of the day were made toward the close, although relating for profits elsewhere was apparent, especially among steels, equipments and shippings. Sales amounted to 1.275,000 shares.
